And therefore never send to know
for whom the bell tolls;
It tolls for thee.

Dedication

Through his dedication of a lifetime to students in the classroom, laboratory, home, and the Bates Community, Professor Fred E. Pomeroy has put himself to the proof that "No man is an Iland, intire of it selfe; every man is a . . . part of the maine."

1899 - 1947

"MAN OF DISTINCTION"

Administration and Faculty

Learning were safe; in this our Universe
Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.

Charles F. Phillips, Ph.D., L.L.D.

PRESIDENT

Bates Conference Committee

The Bates Canference Cammittee, meeting every twa weeks with President Phillips, serves a dual purpase. It is a saunding baard far student and faculty apinians an current campus activities and palicies. Twa af the six student representatives are the presidents af the Student Cauncil and Student Gavernment. Na less impartant are the additianal twa men and wamen. Theirs is the jab af presenting the prablems and trends in apinian an vital campus subjects. Dr. Phillips expresses the faculty paint af view. Campramise results when necessary. Same matters must be shelved as insaluble far the time being, but the B. C. C. has a fine batting average. It was instrumental in the apening af recreatianal facilities in the Wamen's Unian far entertaining purpases "after haurs". The members alsa directed a very successful Red Crass Drive.

Student Council

This year the Council once again assumed its major role in campus activities. Representing all men on campus Stu C worked to bring about greater cooperation between the college administration and the male student body. Through its weekly open meetings and occasional meetings of the Assembly the desires of the men were made known and the efforts of the Council directed toward bringing life on campus more closely in line with the popular will. Close coordination was maintained with the Women's Student Government and the President through bi-monthly meetings of B. C. C.

Inspired by the campus's illustrious Mayor John L. Dyer, the Council carried on an active program, including rallies and a men's smoker at which movies of the Toledo game were shown.

Student Government

The Women's Student Government is primarily an organization to promote the Honor System and to develop wide-spread responsibility in each individual. Not only does it accomplish this aim but it has the wholehearted cooperation of all the women on campus. Stu-G is a democratic institution. The Board of members represents and acts on the majority of opinion. This year they worked out the problem of smoking in the reception rooms to the satisfaction of students and faculty alike, and also made it possible to have coed entertaining in the Women's Union four nights a week.

An organization of this caliber is naturally open to criticism and welcomes it. Yet its strength and workability testify to its value as a permanent governing body for Bates women.

Seniors

Here take my Picture; though I bid farewell,
Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.

. . . . Winter did benight the glory of this place,
And that a grave frost did forbid these trees to laugh.

Senior Dance, Class Day, Last Chapel, Class Outing, and many other commencement activities are all the responsibilities of the officers of the Senior class and their committees, as they attempt to make the last year at Bates a memorable one.

IVY DAY ODE

Whispering phantoms of three swift years stand beside us now,

Insistently pricking our thoughts with the memory of dreams

That we fashioned, ideals that were close to us here,

Asking us why we should leave those dreams, turn our backs on those dreams

That were real to us here.

Why should we leave them crawling, clinging — a forgotten lace of green?

Do we plant our dreams like the Ivy roots — bury them in the ground

Throw dirt upon them, and trample them down?

Still, they escape and climb with leaves,

Young aspiring tendrils that have hope and no fears.

Dreams can't be buried even though we might wish it —

They grow and make laughter of despair and tears.

It's only our sorrow if we leave them behind;

They're put in the world to be taken.

If we leave them, vain whims on forgotten walls,

Only our joy is forsaken.

CAROLYN BOOTH

FOUR BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES

by Mildred Mateer

Far cryin' in the bucket, da Seniars always have ta reminisce? Speaking af cryin', it reminds us that it was Squeezie's favarite expressian Freshman year. That was the year we wauld traap to the Qual every night singing "Paper Dall", and then wauld run hame madly ta get in by nine a'clack. Wauld the time ever come far us ta get thase desired ten o'clack pers? That was the year we didn't really knaw what a Bates man was — everything was Navy. Nat that we camplained.

Wonderful, wanderful snaw we had far Thanksgiving, and we became a part af the land of winter sparts. Winter Carnival came and we were all excited. It was the first big week-end. Oh, the excitement when early Saturday marning the rumar started that all the New Dorm sailars were quarantined. Graans and moans all aver the place — then the ecstacy when freedom far the dates came.

Chase Hall dances with Fingers Hagerty playing "Boagie Waagie" — the Navy octet with Buzz Hendersan and Bill Barry among athers.

The horrible headache af Sacial Science — Cultural Heritage had nathing on that.

Sophamore year we came back with a newfound saphisticatian. The campus was getting more and more devoid of men. Christmas dance absalutely breath-taking with its beautiful lights and a multitude af Christmas trees. Navy Smakers, at last apen ta women. The first time many of us had ever seen a wrestling match, and, oh my, those mysteriaus jokes abaut the Gaase af which we talked in hushed tanes. It was so definitely "aut of baunds".

With Juniar year the war was over. People were all receiving telegrams that their men were hame. Secand semester, with the return af the vets, we began ta know what real Bates men were like. Saon varsity sparts were really functianing and we immediately taak aver the State Championship in baseball, just a prelude af what was ta come. The mayaralty campaign was renewed, and we took part in the snake dances, parades, block dances, rode an trucks screaming far "aur man" . . . John Dyer's renditian of "Embraceable Yau" which clinched far him the mayaralty. We left with many hopes far aur final year as the biggest and best year af all.

September, 1946, and at last we had become what we had heard called, "The Grand Old Seniars". Funny, but we felt just the same. We came back ta find a new element an campus, the inhabitants of Sampsanville, and immediately they became an impartant part af aur campus life. We loaked ta them with admiratian. Mast af them were studying with a purpase, but knew haw ta cambine it with a goad time, and best af all it was as if same af the gals had never graduated far we cauld see the friends we had made during aur underclass days. The culmination af it all was when they packaged the essence af their mare or less cammunity living inta a shaw called, "Me and the Missus."

This was the year we had an undefeated foatball team. Remember haw we sat crawded araund aur radias that eventful day we played in the Glass Bawl at Taleda, cheering madly as if we were right there with them. Seemed as if we could mark the events by the number of send-offs that we went ta. Saw Ed and Narm off ta Europe far the first past-war international debate, saw the team aff ta Taleda and were on hand ta meet them coming back.

Our winter carnival came and we had Rudie Moulton as the bland and lovely queen. Finally got enaugh snaw to ski on and have the rest of the sports. Ice shaw stupendaus, getting better every year. Gals and guys getting engaged all aver the place. Hocky's big surprise for us.

But quite suddenly spring came to Bates and we looked at our calendars and saw we had anly a few mare weeks ta be here. Many things we realize we are daing for the last time ever, and we feel in aur banes that life will never again be that carefree dance we sa gaily did far the faur best years af aur lives.

Undergraduates

Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,
Who so would change, do covet or repent;
Neither can reach you, great and innocent.

Activities

Goe, and catche a falling starre,
Get with child a mandrake root,
Tell me, where all past year's are,
Or who cleft the Divels foot.

Were futility God, and frustration His son;
Against the force of tradition
And the limitations of want
They strive with hope and optimism.

THE MIRROR STAFF

L. Lorenz, R. Vail, P. Hoy, C. Carlson

The majarity af students seldam came inta direct cantact with the Publishing Assaciatian, yet every Bates student is a member. The actual business is carried on by a Baard af Directars. Three faculty members, as supervisars, are appainted by the President, one being Treasurer. The five student members are chasen at the all-callege elections in the spring and cansist af a president, vice-president and secretary, fram the incaming Seniar class; and a men's and wamen's representative from the incoming Junior class. The twa Juniar members remain on the board and are the candidates at the election for the offices of president and vice-president.

The functian of the Baard af Directars is ta supervise and apprave the palicies and management of all callege publicatians. At present, these are the Student, the Mirrar, and the Garnet. The P.A. Baard appraves the staffs af these publicatians and serves as the anly cantact between them and the Administratian.

The Publishing Association

Bates College Christian Association

It is the purpose of the Christian Association to demonstrate the validity of Christian teaching through a program of activity as an integrative force in the religious life of the college and the local community, as an agency for useful campus and community service, and as a means for expanding the thinking and interests of students to include vital public problems.

To implement these objectives the C.A. program is carried on through nine commissions—Religion, Deputations, Campus Service, Community Service, Freshman, Social, Publicity and Conferences, Reconstruction, and Public Affairs. The IMUR Party, Stanton Ride, Sunday Vespers, WSSF Variety Show and campaign, the Chase Hall meetings, and the first college Political Emphasis Week were among the highlights of the program this year.

The B. C. A. in its campus program, and through its participation in the National Student Christian Association Movement, offers unique opportunities for the development of religion as a dynamic force in modern college life.

The 1946-47 Debating Council, swinging back into its pre-war stride, enjoyed its most diversified program in many a year. Traveling as far west as Chicago and east to the British Isles, discussions were held with over forty institutions in the United States, Canada, England, and Scotland.

Ed Dunn and Norm Temple, wished well by a midnight all-college send-off, started off the season with their six-week international tour; Bates returned British hospitality in March, entertaining Cambridge University on the campus. Winning ten out of eleven decision debates with such institutions as Harvard, McGill, Wesleyan, Williams, and Boston University and tieing "firsts" both in the Vermont Invitational Tourney and Dartmouth Freshman Tourney, the Varsity squad maintained laurels on the home-front. Scores of non-decision debates including several radio appearances offered experience to Council members, recorded debates with University of Iowa and Whitman College were utilized on radio broadcasts, and Bates' representatives appeared again at Rhode Island Model Congress and the bi-annual Delta Sigma Rho Conference at Chicago. A pretty good year!

F O O T B A L L

1946 wos a big athletic yeor in Bates history. The spotlight wos on Coach "Ducky" Pond as he turned out his first post-war footboll team. Mass. State become the first victim, 6-0. Then followed: Trinity 25-0, Tufts 19-6, Northeastern 20-0, Maine 7-4, Bowdoin 6-0, and Colby 6-0 — an undefeated football seoson, Bates' first in forty-eight yeors. With it came the State Series Championship, the first since 1930 in football. To top off the perfect seoson, the team wos invited to meet the University of Toledo Rockets in the initial Glass Bowl gome at Toledo, Ohio, on December 7. Bates scored first and ployed a tremendous game throughout, but lost 21-12. Even in defeot, honors were heaped upon Coach Pond and his fighting squad. Sportswriters selected Bates' flashy halfback Art Blanchard as the outstanding individual player of the Bowl game. Storting the gome with Blanchard were: Larochelle, Howlett ond Heap in the bockfield; and Joyce, Cunnane, Shea, Leahey, Stone, L. Blanchord ond Parent in the line. A credit to their college ond their cooches; a great team were the 1946 Bobcats of the gridiron.

State Champs

Caach Ed. Petro braught Bates its first State Champianship in basketball during the 1946-47 seasan. Series titles were wan by bath the varsity and juniar varsity squads. Varsity starters in mast af the games were Bill Simpsan and Russ Burns, forwards; Jackie Jayce, center; Red Barry and Dick Scott, guards. Simpsan and Jayce were amang the tap scarers in the State, and Jayce set a new individual scaring mark with 40 paints in ane game against Colby. Another great Bates team and anather Championship.

"TOLEDO GLASS BOWL SEND-OFF"

Just a little kiss, Ducky . . . and way up in the North woods . . . and remember . . . "Dig, dig, dig" . . . We are out to win . . . Start passing them out, Abe . . . Give us a B . . . The lull before the storm. Rand Hall . . . ah, supporters. Whadyasay Bates? Let's go! Let's go! It's A.C. with a fugitive from Carnegie.

"WINTER CARNIVAL"

A carnival is in the air . . . Snowflakes and baseball — what a combo. Faculty had been "linimenting" for weeks . . . Who won? . . . Well!! Ski meets with breath-taking jumps. Some with beautiful form — others with —. Six beautiful coeds, and Queen Rudie. And what could those girls be playing? Could be a form of hockey on skis. We dunno, but they're having fun. Skates waltzing to the strains of the Blue Danube, plenty of candidates for the Ice Follies. It's true — we sing, and dance, and spell romance.

You can't get close that way — Swell way to four point. The modesty of some coeds. Mmmm — food for starving souls. Wash day's any day. Major Joppolo in action. This, we go for. Such noise, so early in the A.M. You look downright glum, boys. Terrific strength — these coeds. Vit. D. for the Lab. "rats." Celebrities at the local hot-spot.

What are those books for? A few Smith Hall heroes. Just passing by —. How to make H_2S. Twosome. What was it you were saying? Happy about something fellows? Now the next step in the process is . . . Mmmm . . . so this is the Freshman president. Come a little closer, baby. Wait till I get a chance to pose. Can you see anything, Tony? Midnight revels. Got something on your mind, kiddies? Just a bit more smile, Scotty.

Holding up the fireplace. Is there time enough? Don Connors and o chorocteristic pose. Mount Dovid was never like this. Edie and Furf. Waiting for the eats. Obviously from "Contented Cows". "How to bring up baby" — by Jo Jo. Our boys —. How old did you say the coeds were? I look so much better this way. The morning after in Toledo.

Let's get the flame just right. Little Bill Chamberlain on the drafting board. Got a light, Doc? What do you say, Jeanie? Let's pile a few more in. Freshman Frolics. Gentlemen, a few of a very select group. They call it Chase House — watch the pronunciation, please. And that's the way they go to bed. This we like. The 1890's — when men were men, and women were — well!! There's always a brain in a crowd. Now this week in the Student we have — .

"BETTY BATES"

" . . . each fair coed . . . "

. . . Poise, good grooming, and that intangible something . . .

"Curley did it; Ross is doing it; I will try it." "Lincoln did away with the plantation aristocracy, I will do away with the brown-nose aristocracy."

The ward boys put on a show ala Minsky. Effecting the rescue. The sweetest music this side of —. Coeds with a taste for floor shows. Recognition of heroic conduct. "Stick with Dick." A lovely offering to a lovely lady. The Honorable John Lincoln Dyer! Bigger and better signs. The dignitaries arrive.
